

Transfer of Interment Right as a result of a bequest or intestacy

Purpose of this application form:

This application form should be completed by either:

1. a beneficiary that seeks to transfer an interment right from the holder (deceased) to themselves as the new holder or
2. an executor or other authorised person that seeks to transfer an interment right from the holder (deceased) to a new holder.

A cemetery operator may transfer an interment right from one person or two or more persons as joint holders to one person or two or more persons as joint holders. A person to whom an interment right devolves does not become the holder of the interment right until the cemetery operator's register is amended.

Form approved by Cemeteries & Crematoria NSW under subsections 49(4) and 50(4) of the Cemeteries and Crematoria Act 2013.

This application form is not required for transferring rights between joint holders. On the death of a joint holder of an interment right, the remaining joint holder/s is/are entitled to the interment right. Surviving joint holder/s should advise the cemetery of the death of one joint holder so the cemetery operator's register can be updated.
